“You have to love what you’re doing, because then it won’t seem like work to you and you will bring the necessary energy to profit from it.” –Donald J. Trump

As a dynamic start-up with a creative, fast-paced, collaborative working environment, Trump Mortgage is setting out to establish a new industry standard for how mortgage companies do business. We have taken the power and reputation of the Trump brand and built an innovative new company where integrity, trust and commitment are not just words, they are a mission.

A mission that is not just about how we care for our customers, but how we value our employees. We are looking for passionate, highly-motivated, customer-focused individuals who want to be part of building the biggest, best and most respected mortgage specialty firm in the industry—the “dream team” of mortgage professionals.

“The environment at Trump Mortgage far surpasses anything I’ve encountered in the past; an experienced workforce of respectful, understanding, and most of all, loyal-to-each-other professionals who ‘keep the door open’ and are always ready to lend a hand.” M.J. Javaid, Trump Mortgage Consultant

If you are a quality-focused, detail-oriented, professional who is committed to excellence, we invite you to apply for one of the following openings at Trump Mortgage:

Mortgage Originator

Trump Mortgage is looking for full-time, experienced Mortgage Originators who will help to increase our mortgage loan portfolio by developing business contacts, attracting new mortgage customers, and processing and closing mortgage loans. The right candidate will be college educated (minimum Associates Degree), have full knowledge of FNMA/FHLMC FHA/VA and Sub Prime lending guidelines, possess exceptional financial, analytical and verbal communication skills and be adept with financial software. The ability to maintain customer confidence at all times by keeping mortgage loan information confidential absolutely essential. Salary is commensurate with experience with limitless potential for growth. Read more and apply
